

Assignment

1. Identify a business problem or opportunity in your organization and use the RE framework to define the requirements for a solution. Use the techniques discussed in this section to elicit and document the requirements.

2. Develop a plan to manage and maintain the requirements throughout the project. Identify the key stakeholders and their roles in managing the requirements, and explain how the requirements will be tracked, reviewed, and approved.